GOVERNOR LEAVES FOR ALABAMA

His Excellency to Espouse
Cause of Education—Many
Notaries Named—Sick.

Governor Montague left at noon yesterday for Montgomery, Ala., where he will attend a conference of school superintendents of Alabama, and will address a joint session of these gentlemen and the General Assembly on the subject of popular education.

His Excellency is unaccompanied on his trip, and will not be in his office again before Monday. He did not come to the Capitol yesterday before leaving. He and Hon. W. W. McIntire were in conference some time regarding the removal of the remains of Mrs. James Monroe and daughter to Richmond, to rest beside the husband and father, President Monroe, in Hollywood. Secretary Ritchie and Executive Clerk Bigler will be in charge of the once in the Governor's absence.

Secretary of the Commonwealth Election has issued commissions to the following newly appointed notaries public: Messrs. R. S. Brooks, Portsmouth; R. H. Rawles, Suffolk; H. M. Harton, Gate City; J. D. Tucker, W. E. Barrett, L. C. Blankenship, Rushburg; H. C. Darnick, Pump Creek; William Kelly, William Newton Haxall, Barnoursville, and W. J. Ship, Fox, Va.

Second Auditor Dew and Commissioner of Labor Delorty are both sick and are thereby kept at home.

FUNERAL OF MR. DOLLARD

Was Buried in Mount Calvary—Coroner's Inquest.

The remains of Mr. Thomas Dollard, who was killed by being crushed under the wheels of a train early Tuesday morning on Belvidere Street, were interred in Mount Calvary Cemetery yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Coroner Taylor held an inquest yesterday morning, and the jury rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death without blame to the railroad company or its employees.

MR. MURRELL TAKES HOLD, WITH VIGOR

He Will Go to Washington
This Week to Study
Situation.

Colonel A. M. Bowman, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Hon. George E. Murrell, first assistant in the preparations for Virginia exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition, were in conference yesterday, and as a result Mr. Murrell will go to Washington the latter part of the week for the purpose of studying the various exhibits. Mr. Murrell has previously made at world expositions and forming therefrom in his own mind some plan whereby the $50,000 appropriated by Virginia may be expended to the best advantage.

Mr. Murrell left the city last night, but will go by his Bedford home before going to the National Capital.

The question has been earnestly discussed as to where Mr. Murrell will have his office. This will depend to a considerable extent on the liberality of the several railroads in making arrangements for transportation. Two cities are most prominently mentioned as the choice of the commission for the location of its general office. These are Richmond and Lynchburg.

But Mr. Murrell is not going to spend much time in any office. He will travel horseback over this entire State—at least, that which is remote from railroads, making arrangements for articles of exhibit. He is taking hold of the important work with great earnestness, just as the commissioners knew he would when they elected him, and the success of Virginia's part of the great show is assured.

THE BRISTOL INSTITUTE

An Urgent Appeal is Now Made in Its Behalf.

The Education Commission of the Baptist General Association of Virginia has issued an appeal to the churches of the State in behalf of the Bristol Institute. The paper, which is published in the Herald, is signed by the president, Mr. Simon Seward, of Petersburg, and all the other members. It says in part:

"Brethren, our actual condition ought to be known to you, and we present it to you with perfect candor. We have in actual cash, and in certain pledges of money, which become instantly available when the whole amount is raised, about $9,000. This leaves a deficit, and we do not feel that there is any way to meet this case except by asking the Baptists of Virginia to give the rest of the money."

We went carefully over the list of the churches and found that many of our churches had not contributed. They have not yet given anything, and not a few of these churches are strong, and well able to help. They are churches that ought not to be left out of the movement which the Baptists of Virginia are making for Bristol. We desire to say to the pastors and members of these churches that we are constrained to come back to them and ask them to discard the appeal that we make to them. We feel that we ought, also, to call the attention of some of the churches to the fact that they fell quite below the amount that they were asked to give, and this in part explained our trouble. We respectfully ask these churches that they will come up to the full measure of their appropriation, and go their part."

A PINK WEDDING

Mr. H. Lee Carter and Miss Mary Elizabeth Warriner Married.

A very pretty marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. Henry Watson Cottrell, No. 508 North Twenty-second Street, at 5:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the bride being a cousin of Mr. Cottrell.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Warriner and Mr. H. Lee Carter were the contracting parties. The Rev. M. Ashby Jones tied the nuptial knot. The couple came into the parlors to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. R. H. Hardesty.

The bride was accompanied to the improvised altar by her friend, Miss Kate Grigg, who wore pink organdy and carried carnations. The bride wore a tall or-made suit of blue cloth and carried La France roses.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. Arthur L. Mull.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with palms, pink candelabra and shaded lamps.

Mrs. Carter is a daughter of Mr. John Taylor Warriner, of Amelia County. The groom is a telegraph operator at Chula, Va., whose home is also in Amelia.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter, accompanied by her sister, Miss Blanche Warriner, left on the Southern road at 6 o'clock for the home of the bride.

RECORD OF THE PAST

No Stronger Evidence Can Be Produced.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Any one with a bad back, any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from any kidney ills, will find in the following evidence proof that relief and cure is near at hand:

Mr. G. M. Myers, the well known shoemaker, of Winchester Avenue and Fourth Street, Ashland, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are like true friends—the longer you know them the better they are appreciated. I can add nothing to the statement I first made in 1896, after I procured the remedy at the Ventura Drug Company and took a course of the treatment, which cured me. I was absolutely free from all backache for nearly three years; then I noticed a slight ache, as the result of a cold, in my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills disposed of it. I have recommended this remedy to many and have never heard of one who did not endorse the claims made for it."

The Man ABOUT TOWN

DAILY CALENDAR—JANUARY 29.
1492—Ben Metzger crossed the Rhine.
2006—Sam Parrish purchased a new coat.

We take great pleasure in thanking Mr. Fred Jurgens for the beautiful calendar he sent us.

They shall hang above our $75 roller-top, so that we may see at a glance when it is time to go to lunch.

We overlook our lunch so often that when we do go after it, Kirkwood has to shut the doors on everybody else, for we are prepared to eat all in the house.

And when the calendar runs off, we shall take the beautiful pictures off and put gilded frames about them, and hang them on the wall in our hall room, so that when we awake in the morning we may see those beautiful eyes, those rosy lips and that sweet smile.

A man went into Moore & Burke's place on Hull Street with whiskers on his chin and said:

"Good evening."
"What do you sell whiskey by the gill for?" asked.
"Because we are here for that purpose," said Mr. Burke.
"I mean, why do you sell it at for so much a pint?"

"You mean you want to know how much we charge by the gill."
"Yes."
"Eight cents."

"That's high. Everybody else charges five."

"Can't help what others charge; that's our price."

"Lemme try it."
So he got a gill in a cup, and then poured it in a glass.

"That's all right," he said, "now lemme see if I got the price."
Then he dug down into his pants and pulled forth a roll.

"See that roll," he said, "I lost it last night. It was a dark and stormy night, and I went to see some friends. After we had been sitting around the fire for awhile, thinking and breathing hard, somebody said it would be a good night for candy."

"So I ups and goes out and gets a box of candy, and I carries my roll in my hand all the time. After we had sat and talked till about 10 o'clock, I ups and goes, and when I gets up the street a little piece, I misses my roll."

"And where do you think I found it?"
Everybody gave it up.

"In the candy box."
The moral of this whole story is that even a man with a roll wants to get all the liquor he can for the price.

CHINESE NEW YEAR

Festive Season is Now on and Laundry
Work is Below Par.

"K'ong Hi Lan N'ou," the Chinese New Year, was appropriately celebrated by the local colony of celestials yesterday. The festival will continue for a week, and during that time very few collars and shirts will be "done up," for it is looked upon as a season of rest.

Very little else than eating, talking and sleeping will be engaged in, and chop suey will be consumed in very large quantities.

It will be the rule to dine out during the holidays, and each celestial in his time will entertain his fellow countrymen. All bills must be paid up by the Chinamen before the season closes, as it is considered a great sin to go into the new year with a debt being overdue.

Fairmount News

The Council of the town of Fairmount met in called session on the evening of the 25th instant and appointed a committee, which drew up suitable resolutions of their esteem of the late J. F. Newberry, who died last Saturday, the 24th.

At the funeral of Mr. J. F. Newberry, on the 27th instant, at Christ Church, there was the largest crowd, perhaps, of any funeral that has gone out from Fairmount.

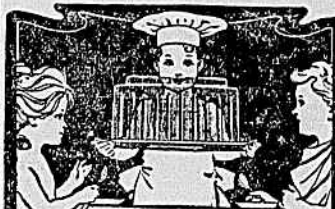

Mr. J. T. Nuckols, who was taken violently ill last Saturday night, is now convalescent.

Mr. Wren, corner of Twenty-third and S Streets, who has been sick for more than two months, is slowly improving.

Mr. D. P. Mitchell, who has been sick for more than a year, has in the last few days been sitting up, but remains very weak. He lost a little girl about three weeks ago, and the only remaining child is quite ill.

Miss Dolly Chapman, of No. 1210 North Twenty-seventh Street, suffered a painful operation on last Saturday, and is now much relieved and hopeful of permanent cure.

The Council of Fairmount hope to have the town lighted by electricity by the first of April, and a splendid system of water works by the last of this year.
